Rev. Bullock's Address.

Address to the Forty-fifth annual session of the Rowan Baptist Association by the Moderator, G. O. Bullock, this the 24th day of August, 1911:

Dear Brethren:—It is with much joy that we come up to the Forty-fifth annual session of the Rowan Association. Twelve months of hard toil and labor brings us again to this mount of privilege. Once more we have come to devise plans and to invoke the blessings of the Almighty to help us in the great work of our Association. The field is white, the harvest is waiting, the call is for more consecrated unselfish men on the field. Let us not consider ourselves but count the objects of this Association greater than any man in the Association.

We believe that the report from the various churches this year will show progress. We hope to have more members represented this year than ever before.

(1) The cause of Missions will ever be dear to the heart of every true Missionary Baptist. One of the main objects of this Association when founded by our fathers was to support home and foreign Missions. Thus the seventh section of our Constitution reads as follows: "The objects of this Association shall be for fraternal intercourse, and mutual counsel, to promote the union of churches and support home and foreign Missions." This Association since I have known of its workings, has supported Missions. I pray that the day will never come when our ardor will slack or our love grow cold for the cause of Missions.

Let us keep in mind the great command that is among the very last words of our Lord and Master before he left the earth. Mark 16: 15-16, "And He said unto them. Go ye into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature. He that believeth and is baptised shall be saved, but he that believeth not shall be damned." Our contributions last year as an Association for foreign Missions through the Lott Carey Convention was $40. Let us work, pray and trust that it will be larger this year than it was last. Very much of the success of the Missionary cause will depend upon the pastors of the churches. A few of our largest churches have been without pastors a part of this year. New Bethel church of Winston-Salem, on the account of the resignation of Rev. G. W. Kilgore, and Ebenezer church of Charlotte, on the account of the death of Dr. J. R. Cozart. Otherwise I believe that the most of our other churches are moving along in the even tenor of their way. Dr. J. R. Cozart, who preached one of the sermons for this Association last year, has finished his work, laid down his armour on June 22, 1911, and I believe has gone to join the Spirits of just men made perfect on the other side of the river of death. There I think the Lord formed while on earth.

(2) The time is fully ripe for this Association to take some forward steps along educational lines. We should try and if possible this year settle upon some permanent home for the Piedmont Institute. It goes without saying that we need a school in this very large Association to train our boys and girls to be strong and useful men and women. A school on good foundation in the bounds of the Rowan Association would add much to the spirit and growth of this body. A school that will prepare our boys and girls for college. A school that this Association would support heartily. Such a school can and should be established. Shall we sit idly by and let this opportunity pass, because our fathers failed to grasp their opportunities in their day or shall we prove ourselves men and masters of the situation. I shall leave the answer with you.

(3) The Winston Orphanage is doing a splendid work. A work of which this Association should feel justly proud. This Institution should receive the hearty support of every church in the bounds of the Rowan Association. The entire Association should be gratified to have Rev. R. Shepard as superintendent of the Winston Orphans' Home. The man who with his amiable wife, Mrs. P. G. Shepard, made the Oxford Orphanage such a great Institution, is now laboring with this Institution in our own borders. With the proper co-operation of this Association may not we expect very great things for this Institution. The relation that should exist between the Association, the Western Convention, and the Woman's Auxiliary, should be very close.

Each Sunday School in the Rowan Association should be represented in the Western Sunday School Convention. Each Missionary Society should be represented in the Woman's Auxiliary. If we co-operate with these organizations we could work well the various departments of our churches. This is a day of co-operation. A united consecrated effort is needed to make our Association and its work go. If there is any one thing needed in the Baptist ranks more than another it is unity, let us unite our efforts and teach the world a great lesson by what we do as an Association. The Baptists of this country are making progress. This Association should not be one whit behind other organizations. In fact we should stand in the very front ranks of the Baptists of North Carolina, because some of the strongest churches, and pastors in this State are found in this section. If we fail to make good it will be a very sad reflection on this noble body of leaders. Let us notice some of the facts concerning the progress of the Baptists among the Protestant denominations of the United States. Numerically the Baptist rank first, they number 5,383,944. The Baptists of the United States raised last year for church work $25,987,-911. They own and control ninety-three universities and colleges valued at $31,694,975, with an endowment of $29,697,019. They have 34,099 students in these colleges and universities. This means that about one seventh of all the university and college students in the United States are in Baptist Institutions. They own about one eighth of all the college and university property in the United States and control one ninth of the endowment funds. Besides their universities and colleges the Baptist own and control eight secondary schools valued at $5,-281,408 with an endowment fund of $1,883,481. They have in these schools 14,844 students. The Baptists of the United States have nearly $75,000,000 invested in educational work. In the year eighteen hundred there were about 50,000 Baptists in the United States. In 1910 there were 5,383,944. The fifteen Southern States comprising the territory of the Southern Baptist Convention have within their borders about 2,150,000 white Baptist. The thirty-three other States comprising the territory of the Northern Baptist Convention have within their borders 1,374,524 Baptist. Besides this there are about 1,800,000 Negro Baptists. There are 49,753 Baptist churches; 36,368 ordained Baptist Ministers in the United States. In the United States last year there were 398,895 additions by baptism.

When George Washington took his oath of office as the first President of the United States one person out of every ninety-four was a Baptist. Now one person of every seventeen is a Baptist. I have given these facts concerning the Baptists that you might refresh your memory of the progress which the Baptists have made in this country. When it comes to numbering the Baptists I believe that our figures are very imperfect and especially the Negro Baptists. The bulletin of the Baptist World's Alliance places the Negro Baptist 1,800,000. But I am sure there are more than two million Negro Baptist in these United States. The Baptist are very much like the number that John saw that no man could number. I believe it takes the infinite mind to number the Baptists. You see from the facts just recited that the Baptist people believe in education. We are covenanted to religiously train our children. I don't see how that we can neglect that part of our duty as an Association. Let us come together as men of God. Preach the old doctrine of Repentance, Regeneration and Sanctification, call the people back to God. Education and Missions will follow as natural consequence. This Association will take on new life and shine as the stars of the firmament because the presence of the Lord of Host will be with us.

Graham, N. C., August 23, 1911.

The Rowan Baptist Association met in its 45th annual session at 10 o'clock with the First Baptist Church.

The sermon was quite inspiring and was enjoyed by the large delegation present. The speaker sought to show that the religion of the Lord Jesus Christ was not a burden but a pleasure and that all true believers should get joy out of the practice of Christianity. The Moderator then sang, "I Am Pressing on That Upward Way." A collection of $3.71 was taken by Rev. R. H. Harris. Committees on hours of meeting, permanent organization and obituary were then appointed.

ed by the audience. Dr. Whitted, Dr. Crosby, Dr. Spiller, Rev. Watkins and Rev. Croom all made helpful remarks on the subject. On motion Dr. Crosby was given the first 30 minutes of the evening session to speak of the observations of the West. Revs. Crocket, Scott, Miller, Therman, Hall and Bro. Carr were introduced to the Association. Bro. Carr spoke some very encouraging remarks to the Association.

Bro. Scott also made timely remarks. Rev. Croom spoke of the Weekly Counsel published by him at Salisbury.

Benediction by Rev. O. S. Bullock.

Wednesday Night.

The Association reassembled at 7:30. Devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. T. H. Hairston and Rev. Scott. Rev. Hairston sang hymn 492, "Amazing Grace." Rev. Scott read 29th Psalm and offered prayer. The Moderator then introduced Dr. J. O. Crosby to speak of his observations of the West. After the speaker had spoken very interestingly, a vote of thanks was given. The mayor of the city came forward and welcomed the Association. He said many encouraging and helpful remarks. He spoke as one with a broad and Christian heart. Rev. G. W. Watkins, in choice language, responded briefly to the mayor. Rev. Carnish, of the A. M. E. church, then, in a flowery and polished speech, welcomed the Association on behalf of the churches of the city. The choir then sang a beautiful selection. Rev. J. W. Jones then led in prayer. Rev. B. K. Mason then ascended the rostrum accompanied by Rev. G. W. Watkins. The Moderator then introduced Rev. Mason to preach the annual sermon, who selected for his text John 15:6. Subject, "Union With Christ." The sermon showed marked preparation and was delivered with much earnestness. The discourse was well received. "Will there be any Stars," was then sung. After encouraging remarks concerning the orphan home by Dr. Whitted and Bro. Timlie and a song by the orphans a collection of $36.56 was taken.

After announcements by the Moderator benediction by Rev. J. P. Alexander.

Thursday Morning Session.

The Association reassembled at 9:30. Praise service was conducted by Rev. J. I. Mumford and Rev. J. W. Jones. Rev. Mumford sang hymn 356, "I Was a Wandering Sheep." Rev. Jones read the 92nd Psalm, and Rev. Crockett, of Spencer, led in fervent prayer. The congregation then sang "My Soul Be on Thy Guard." After devotional exercises the Moderator called for the minutes of the previous day's work which was read and adopted.

On motion it was ordered that we publish in our Minutes an "Honor Roll," giving proper credit to the persons who have been liberal to the cause.

Rev. O. S. Bullock, pastor of First Baptist church at High Point, then spoke on the subject, "Ideal Ministry." He said that "Ideal" meant perfection. Jesus Christ was an ideal teacher and preacher. The first requirement is regeneration. The man who preaches the Gospel of the Son of God should himself be a Christian. Second He should know himself the thing he is trying to teach others. No man can teach others what he himself does not know. He should live the life he teaches. Should be men of one wife. Men of character.

The Moderator then came forward and delivered his annual address which was rich in thought and greatly inspired the brethren of this great body. "All Hail the Power of Jesus Name," was then sung.

On motion by Rev H. M. Ellis that a vote of thanks be given the Moderator for this timely address and the whole address appear in the Minutes. (See address.)

On motion the brethren from the High Point Association were received as fraternal delegates. Rev. Hughes spoke to the delight of the Association, bringing greeting from the High Point Association. A motion prevailed to appoint a committee to confer with a like committee appointed by the High Point Association for the purpose of drawing up resolutions governing the relation of the two bodies, and that a fraternal delegate be sent to the next session of the High Point Association. Prof. R. W. Brown then spoke of the work of the Western Sunday School Convention. He said we have too much emotion and not enough of real life in our religion. He also spoke of the lack of interest the ministry showed in Sunday School work. The Western Sunday School Convention, he declared, was the prime mover in establishing the orphan home at Winston and the educational work in our midst. Prof. Brown's address was a great one and a helpful one and will yield much for the cause he so dearly loves.

Rev. C. H. Williamson, the business manager of the Baptist Sentinel, then enthused the whole audience as he spoke with eloquence of the Baptist Sentinel, the State organ of the Baptists, and as he told in glowing terms the wonderful achievements of the Baptist Church. A collection of $10.70 was given the Sentinel.

Doxology was sung and benediction was pronounced by Rev.

C. H. Williamson.

Thursday Afternoon Session.

The Association reassembled at 2:30 p. m. Devotional exercise was conducted by Rev. B. B. Hill, the Association missionary. He sang "Am I a Soldier of the Cross," and read for the lesson the 133rd Psalm. Prayer was offered by Rev. G. W. Glass. The missionary stated he wished to have a succession of prayers and spoke of the importance of having wide-awake prayer meetings in our churches.

Prof. R. W. Brown then led in prayer and several spoke of the unity of the Brotherhood. Rev. Hill then spoke of the work of the field.

On motion the Association accepted Rev. J. P. Alexander's note for $6 payable the following Monday.

Bro. Junius Moore, of the Mt. Calvary Baptist church, Mt. Airy, N. C., said, "I am proud to meet you and tell you about our church and Sunday School. I was in all of the first movement toward establishing the work. God has blessed us. We have a good pastor and we love him. Come to see us."

Bro. J. C. Chunn, of the New Bethel church, R. F. D., Mocksville, said: "We are doing well and have a splendid pastor.

Bro. T. Carter, of the Shiloh church, Winston, said: "We are getting on well financially. Pastor's anniversary did fine."

Deacon D. G. Hunsucker in speaking of Liberty Hill, Claremont, said: "Glad to be here. We are doing well. We have a new church. Rev. Alexander is feeding us rich gospel and we are growing fat."

Rev. R. B. Hall spoke of his work at Union Temple, Salisbury: "We are doing splendid. I took charge April 1st with only 18 members and only 10 of them active. DR. WHITTED.

Whereas, we have learned with regrets that Rev. Dr. J. A. Whitted, the president of our Baptist State Convention and the honored pastor of the First Baptist church, Winston-Salem, has been called to the pastorate of the First Baptist church of Birmingham, Ala., and whereas, for many years he has been the recognized leader of the Baptist forces of the Old North State with such men as Drs. C. S. Brown and Crosby and others whose names we shall not mention, and whereas, the departure of Dr. Whitted from this State would prove a great loss to our denomination as well as to the people in general.

Resolved, that we, the members and delegates of the Rowan Baptist Association in session in the town of Graham representing more than ten thousand Baptists exceedingly regret for the sake of the cause of Christ and the uplift of this great denomination and for the betterment of our people in this State that he will reconsider the matter if it can be done honorably and content himself to remain with a people who love him and are still willing to follow his leadership;

Respectfully submitted,

O. S. BULLOCK,

R. SPILLER.

Temperance.

We your committee on Temperance submit the following report:

Whereas, we are a band of consecrated Christians, working for the uplift of the race and the spread of the Gospel to every nation and whereas, Intemperance is one of the greatest hindrances to the accomplishments of the same. Be it

Resolved, That we discountenance the use of alcoholic liquors as a beverage and that we recommend the use of unfermented wine at the sacrament, and

Whereas, the deadly cigarette and cocaine benumbs the senses and destroys the intellect, resolved we discourage the use of tobacco and all narcotics.

Whereas, the Bible requires purity in all things and that whereas, the mouth speaks what is in the heart. Be it resolved that we recommend the use of chaste language at all times. We further recommend the use of common sense in dress rather than a blind following of fashion. That we strive to teach by example as well as precept at all times and in all places the total abstinence from all that tends to degrade.

COMMITTEE.

PROCEEDINGS.

Thursday Morning Session.

Statesville, N. C., July 13, 1911.

The third annual session of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Rowan Association convened with the First Baptist Church, Statesville, N. C., July 13, 1911.

At 8:30 praise service was conducted by Sisters Lula Wood and Ida Hairston. A beautiful scripture lesson was read. Sister Lucy Thompson offered prayer, after which an hour was spent in praise and adoration and thanksgiving for the many blessings received during the past year and in petitioning the guidance of the Holy Spirit in all the deliberations of the Auxiliary.

The meeting was opened for business, the President, Sister L. L. Walker, presiding.

The delegates were enrolled.

The minutes of the Executive Board and also the minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted.

The committee on Hours of Meeting was appointed.

Mrs. P. G. Shepard, president of the Woman's State Convention, was introduced to the Auxiliary. Her remarks were timely and helpful.

Dr. G. O. Bullock when requested to again explain the object of the Auxiliary stated that the purpose of the organization was to reach that class of women in the Church who were inactive, to strengthen old missionary societies, to organize new ones and for the spread of the Gospel everywhere.

The report of the Committee on Hours of Meeting received and adopted.

Rev. G. O. Bullock, Rev. A. H. Lewis, Rev. Butler and Mr. Brown were introduced. Rev. Butler gave a helpful talk and asked that his Sisters be permitted to join. Permission was freely given.

Roll called.

Benediction by Rev. Butler.

Afternoon Session.

Praise service was conducted by Sisters Roxine Jones and Jones. The 31st Psalm was read. Sister Jones offered prayer. All joined heartily in the praise service—singing, praying or testifying as led by the Spirit.

At 2:45 the house was opened for business.

Rev. I. Wentz came forward and on behalf of the clergy heartily welcomed the Auxiliary to the hospitable town of Statesville.

Rev. Wentz said he was glad to have lived to have witnessed a time when all denominations could lay aside their petty differences and come together on one common ground and take a stand for God and His righteousness. He said that he believed that the women had a work to do, that they were better fitted to do than man. His address was helpful and inspiring in every particular.

Mrs. A. L. Lewis in a beautifully prepared paper welcomed the Auxiliary for the missionary societies.

Mrs. G. O. Bullock, who had kindly consented to take the place of one on program, was also absent. Mrs. P. G. Shepard, in her own lovely way, responded to these most cordial welcomes. Mrs. G. O. Bullock said she arrived just in time to give emphasis to what had been said.

The report of the Corresponding Secretary was received and adopted. The Treasurer being absent, the Corresponding Secretary made that report also, and explained why the money was in her hands. The report was received and adopted.

By motion, the time was extended thirty minutes.

The Committees on Officers, Finance, Time and Place, Temperance, Obituary, Courtesies, Auditing, were appointed.

Mrs. I. Wentz was introduced.

The Auxiliary was asked to pray for Mrs. Dora Williams.

Collection $1.55.

Benediction by Dr. Bullock.

Evening Session.

Praise service was conducted by Sisters Glenn and Belt.

The 20th Psalm was read.

The service was very uplifting and beneficial.

In the absence of the vice president Sister Shepard was asked to preside. The president then delivered her annual address. Her subject was "Go Forward." It was indeed timely and inspiring. The congregation joined heartily in singing, "Onward Christian Soldiers." Mrs. L. R. Chavis read a very helpful paper on the Benefit of Missionary Societies to the Church. By motion ten minutes were given for discussion.

By motion it was decided that a copy of the president's address be sent to the Sentinel to be published in the Woman's column.

Mrs. Shepard's talk on Foreign Missions was an education and a demonstration of "Where There's a Will There's a Way." A collection of $5.25 was taken for Foreign Missions.

Benediction by Dr. Wentz.

Friday Morning Session.

Praise service was conducted by Sisters Nannie Sumner and Daisy Keck. The 12th chapter of Hebrews was read and prayer offered. The Spirit of the Lord was present and His power greatly manifested.

Sister Lucy Thompson having to leave on the noon train was given some time at this point to present her work, The Winston Orphanage. Pledges were taken for the orphanage.

The minutes of Thursday's sessions were read and adopted.

Rev. Davis, of the A. M. E. church, and Rev. Sherrill were introduced. Miss Jones, of Western Union Academy, was introduced and given some time to present her work.

The report of committee on Officers was returned to committee. Mrs. Parks, of the Presbyterian church, was introduced.

Sister Daisy Keck's paper on "The Relation of the Auxiliary to the Woman's State Convention," removed all fears regarding the State work.

The hour having arrived for Memorial service, the president sang "Shall We Gather at the River." The committee on Obituary made the following report:

"Whereas, God in His wise providence has removed from our midst Sisters Annie Crone, Malinda Ebon, Laura Jenkins of Mt. Zion, Salisbury, and Sister Margaret Moore of First church, Statesville. We recommend that we bow in humble submission to His will. We also recommend that their names

apepar on the minutes.

The Sisters spoke in loving remembrance of their loved ones. Sister Glenn read a beautiful paper on the life of Sister Moore. The report on nomination of officers was received and adopted.

Afternoon Session.

Devotional services were conducted by Sisters Luretta Johnson and D. R. Chavis. The 73rd Psalm was read and prayer offered by Sister Johnson.

The service was inspiring as usual.

Why the young people in the Church should have meetings was discussed and many helpful thoughts suggested. Discussion led by Mrs. G. O. Bullock.

The Piedmont Institute was discussed. The discussion was led by Dr. Bullock and was of such a nature that the President said School should be stricken from the records until the brethren have gotten together on the matter.

The report of the committee on Time and Place was received and adopted.

The Auditing committee's report was received and adopted.

By motion a vote of thanks was given Miss Stanard and a collection taken for the Piedmont. The money, $2.30, was given to the Finance committee.

Mrs. M. A. Marable was introduced to the Auxiliary.

Benediction by Dr. Wentz.

Night Session.

Devotional service was conducted by Sisters Hoover and Ada Hairston. The 100th Psalm was read and prayer offered by Sister Hairston. The service was heartily enjoyed by all. After which the president in a few choice words, introduced Rev. Lewis, the speaker of the evening. Rev. Lewis was associated by Dr. Bullock who conducted the devotionals. Rev. Lewis' text was 24th verse of 19th chapter of Matthew. His subject was "Making a Life." His sermon was very forceful. Many helpful thoughts were given the Christian that would strengthen his faith and light his way. He admonished the Sisters to keep out envy, contentions, strife, but to place their hands in God's hand and struggle on, success would come.

Dr. Bullock prayed in strong language that the Sisters might be filled with the Holy Spirit and that strength be given them to follow Jesus all the way. "Where He Leads I'll Follow!"

was sung.

Sister Shepard presented the work of the Winston Orphanage. A collection of $10.05 was taken for the orphanage.

not perish but have everlasting life," subject "Jesus mission in the world." The sermon was sound in doctrine, great in argument, and was delivered with great power, the climax was a gem. "Jesus paid it all, was sung." Bro. Andrew Shepherd and Rev. C. N. Brown led in prayer. On motion by Dr. Spiller that the rules be suspended and that the officers be elected by acclamation, motion carried. On motion by Rev. The Europaen Nation has tredded liquor among heathen, and the work thereby has been rendred more difficult. The harmful effect of liquor felt in civilized countries are if anything emphasized when liquor is used by the hetherns, he discussed at some length the hethern custome etc, and futher said that in the field of labor in which they had worked greater respect is being shown the women. ## Regeneration, or The New Birth.

John 3:3 Jesus answered and said unto him verily, verily I say unto thee, except a man be born again he cannot see the kingdom of God.

The question, or doctrines of regeneration is one of very great importance, and should require our most serious consideration. It was this new doctrine that interested the learned Sanhedrin who himself a teacher of God's laws, but hearing of the new and only

At this hour Rev. Dr. Harris the Vice Moderator introduced the Moderator to deliver his address which was well received by the Association. The following brethren were appointed as a committee on the Moderator's address, Dr. P. S. Lewis Rev. H. M. Ellis, Prof. E. E. Curtright Rev. B. B. Hill, F. R. Mason and S. T. Eldredge of the Ebenezer Church at Charlotte, was introduced to the Association and made some very pleasing remarks. Rev J. P. Alexander read the first Psalms and Rev Mason prayed, I am not ashamed to own my Lord, was sung. The Moderator then introduced Rev. H. M. Ellis to preach the introductory sermon. He selected his text from John 3-16 "For God so loved the world that he gave His only begotten son that whosoever believe in him should way into the kingdom of God, sought an opportunity and came to Jesus Christ by night to enquire into its mysteries. Jesus knowing his purpose for coming, at once told him that he must be born again if he would enter the kingdom of God. So astonish was Nicodemus at the plain, but forceful teaching of Christ on this question that he acknowledged his ignorance of the subject and in silence did he listen to what Christ had to say further about it. Whether Nicodemus ever followed Christ's teaching and accepted the new birth is doubted by some; but we hope from what is further stated in scripture concerning him that he did and, that afterwards became a true disciple of Christ and led many others into the way of salvation. We must all agree with the Sanhedrin that how to be born again is no easy thing to see and understand. In fact those who have actually been born a new are not able to tell precisely how and when of the new birth. They find it like the Theologian says "That it is a change that takes place in the region of the soul below consciousness and is known better by the results than the how or when it took place!" The knowledge and process of regeneration is a secret which God has kept to himself regardless to man's wishes or desires. Therefore man's duty is to submit himself to God, and God does the work.

Let us now consider what this new birth or regeneration is. The word regeneration is formed from two Latin words, re and generare. Re, means again and generare to beget or create. Regeneration then mens the act of begetting or creating anew. Spiritually it means born anew or changed from a natural to a spiritual state, or the entering a new spiritual life. That change by which the unholy will in man and the enmity to God and His holy laws are subdued and a principle of supreme love to God and His laws or holy affections are implanted in the heart.

Theologically, regeneration means that act of God by which the governing disposition of the soul is made holy, and by which through the truth as a means, this disposition is secured. And further regeneration or the new birth is the divine side of that change of heart which viewed from the humsn side we call conversion. It is God's turning the soul to himself, while conversion is the soul turning itself to God, of which Ged's turning is both the accompaniment and cause. It will be observed from the above definition that there are two aspects in regeneration. In the first of which the soul is acted upon. God changes the governing disposition and in this change the soul is acted upon. God secures the initial exercise of this disposition in view of the truth, and this change the soul itself acts, but we are not to understand that there is any intervening of time between these two acts of God's operation, but that they are simultaneous at the same time or moment He makes the soul sensitive, He pours in the light of His truth and induces the exercise of that holy disposition He has or His service anything that is productive of happiness, or if he could see in them anything of advantage, his choice of God and his service from such a motive would not be a holy choice and therefore could not be a beginning of holiness.

(b) Others claim as has been said that truth as a system of motives, is the direct and immediate cause of man's change from unholiness to holiness; but to us it seems very clear, that only as the truth is loved and sought for by the sinner can it be a motive to holiness? But we have seen that the attitude of the sinner to God, is such that the truth is hated instead of being loved, and a thing that is hated is hated all the more intensely the more distinctly it is seen. Hence no mere power of truth can be regarded as the efficient cause of man's regeneration under such circumstances.

(c) The third view as stated above as efficient cause is the immediate agency of the Holy Spirit. In this view it is held that the Holy Spirit is the author of the sinner's new birth. We claim that (this view is true only) in part, but we will not agree that he (the Holy Spirit) accomplishes man's regeneration without any accompanying instrumentality. We claim that the power which regenerates is the power of God, conjoined with the use of means, and that there is a direct operation of this power upon the sinner's heart which changed its moral character. So then we say that the Holy Spirit accompanied with the truth or word of God operates upon the heart of the sinner and affects his regeneration.

That is the Holy Spirit brakes up the fallow ground of his heart or prepares his heart for the reception of the truth. Then the truth which is the good seed falls into the prepared ground of his heart, and brings forth the peaceful fruit of righteousness implanted. Then it is as we say, the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts.

We will next consider the necessity of regeneration as may be shown from the scripture.

(a) The scripture shows that regeneration is a change indispensable to the salvation of the sinner. John 3: Marvel not that I say unto thee ye must be born again.

(b) That it is a change in the inmost principle of life, and may be shown from John 3:3 Except a man be born again he cannot see the kingdom of God.

(c) That it is a change in the heart or governing disposition may be shown from Matt. 12:33-35 Either may the tree, and his fruit good or else make the tree corrupt, and his fruit corrupt for the tree is known by his fruit.

(d) That is a change in the moral relation of the soul, may be shown from Col. 1:13 Who hath delivered us from the power of darkness and translated us into the kingdom of his dear son.

(e) It is a change wrought in connection with the truth as a means, may be shown from James 1:18 Of His own will beget he us, with the word of truth that we might be a kind or first fruits of his creation

(f) That it is an instantaneous change, may be shown from John 5:24 He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation, but has passed from death unto life.

(g) That it is a change secretiy wrought and known only by its results may be shown from John 3:8 The wind bloweth where it listeth and thou heareth the sound thereof, but cannot tell whence it cometh or whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the spirit.

(h) That is a change wrought by God himself may be shown from John 1:13 Which were born, not of blood, nor the will of flesh nor of the will of man, but of God.

(i) And last it shows that it is a change accomplished through the union of the soul with Christ. May be shown from Romans 8:5 For the law of the spirit of life in Christ Jesus, has made me free from the law of sin and death.

(2) Thus far we have seen the scriptural testimonies of the importance of the sinners' regeneration. It can also be proven from a rational consideration that man needs to be born again.

(a) Holiness or conformity to the fundamental moral attributes of God is the indespensible condition of securing the divine favor the association and employment of the blest.

(b) The condition of universal humanity as by nature depraved and when arrived at moral consciousness as guilty of actual transgression is precisely opposite of that holiness without which the soul cannot exist in moral relation to God, to self or to holy beings.

(c) Therefore a radical internal change is required in every human soul. A change in that, which constitutes its character. Holiness cannot be attained as the Panthist claim by merely natural growth or development. Since man's natural teddencies are wholly in the direction of selfishness, there must be a reversal of his inmost dispositions and principles of action, if he is to see the kingdom of God.

If a good will is to appear in us, it cannot be done by a partial improvement nor through any outside reform, but only through a revolution a total overturn within us, that is compared with a new birth.

Those who hold that man may attain perfection by a mere growth deny this radical evil of human nature, and assume that our nature is a good seed which needs only favorable external influence of moisture and sunshine to bring forth good fruit. But we have seen that human nature is a damaged seed and that its products are unrighteousness. As the Savior said a corrupt tree cannot bring forth good fruit. In fact the doctrine of mere development as stated denies God's holiness, man's sin, the need of Christ, the necessity of atonement, the work of the Holy Spirit and the Justice of penalty: but if man is ever to become a member of the kingdom of God and a rightful heir to God's great wealth, he must be born again.

(3) We come next to consider the efficient use of regeneration or how man comes in possession of his new birth.

(a) The Pelgians and Aminions hold that the human will is the efficient cause of the sinners regeneration. The Pelgians claim that regeneration is solely the act of man and is identical with self reformation. Aminions claim that generation is the act of man co-operating with divine influence applied through the truth which affects his regeneration.

We cannot agree with either of the two, Pelagians or Arminions; we would say that since man is so depraved and bent to sin, that without a reversal of the affection from which all moral action springs, man will not choose holiness nor accept salvation. And to the Arminions view we would say that no beginning of holiness is in this way conceivable, for so long as man's selfish and perverse affections are unchanged, no choosing God is possible, but such as proceeds from supreme bent on self gratification, and the man thus supremely bent on self-happiness cannot see in God which we call regeneration. So then as we have seen that neither the human will alone, nor the truth alone, nor even the Holy Spirit alone regenerates the sinner, but that it is a combination of the three; i. e. the Holy Spirit illuminates the sinner's soul, the truth is then poured into his soul, his will then yields to the great power of that operation that is then going on in him, and he cries as did Paul when thrown from his beast while on his way to Damascus: "Lord wha wilst Thou have me do?"

(d) The Roman, English and Lutheran churches claim that regeneration is accomplished through the instrumentality of Baptism.

The discipels or follows of Alexander Campbell made regeneration include Baptism as well as repentance and faith. But it is plainly seen from the scriptures that Baptism plays no part at all in Man's regeneration, but it rather an outward sign of a regenerate heart, for we do not baptize a person in order to save him, but because he has been made a disciple already.

Christ in commissioning His disciples he told them to go make disciples of all nations and then baptise them, Mark 16:15. In 1st Peter 3:21, it says Baptism is not the putting away of failth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience towards God. For futher light on this point Acts 8:12, Matt. 28:19-20. So then we say a man may be baptized ever so many times unless he is born again he cannot get to heaven.

(4) We shall consider lastly the nature or benefits that comes which was adopted. Mrs. G. C. Bullock made a glowing report of the Women's Auxiliary. The Auxiliary sent $20 to the Association. The report was adopted by motion. Mrs. Walker, the president of the Auxiliary was present and was introduced and entertained the Association with pleasing remarks. Doxology by Rev. J. W. Hairston.

THURSDAY NIGHT.

The Association met at 8:13 and was opened by singing "Am I a Soldier of the Cross." Rev. C. N. Brown read 1 Tim. 2 chapter. Bro. Levi Hargrave led in prayer followed by "I'll be present" which was sung by Dr. Spiller.

Prof. R. W. Brown spoke on the office and work of a deacon. The address was a splendid one. The choir then sang, "The whole wide World for Jesus.

Prof. L. D. Wilson highly pleased the congregation with an address on "Office and Work of pastor."

Rev. T. H. Hairston then ascended the pulpit accompanied by Rev. J. W. Hawkins who read the Scripture lesson. Rev. Hairston then preached from the subject, "The Privileges of the poor;" text "The Poor having the gospel preached to them," Matt. 11:5.

During the confinement of John the Baptist in Prison under the persecuting reign of Herod, he sent two of his Disciples unto Jesus to ask him this question, "Art thou He that should come, or do we look for another?" What his object was in causing this inquiry to be made of Jesus has been a matter of speculation to readers of the Bible. We presume his design was to benefit those he sent that they might hear for themselves and be established in the truth or it might have been to strengthen himself. But whatever was intended to be accomplished by putting the question, the answer given was worthy of its author. Had our Saviour answered directly, "I am the promised Messiah," He would have increased the anger of his enemies, but He who is to judge all men knows how to answer all questions. So the answer given by him, though indirect, was a wise one indeed; He replied, "go and show John again those things which you do and see." The blind receive their sight and the lame walk; the lepers are cleansed and the deaf hear; the dead are raised and the poor have the gospel preached to them.

1. What is the gospel or god-spell? It is the mind, thoughts, knowledge, feelings, will and revelation from God to man. Again the gospel is the power of God unto Salvation to every one that believeth, to the Jew first and also to the Greek; again the gospel is good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people like John. Third and last but not least, the gospel is good news, it is the best news that ever came into this world or sounded in the human ear, it is the everlasting gospel.

2. To whom is the gospel to be preached? A. To every creature.

He said unto them, go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature; he that believeth and is baptized shall be saved, but he that believeth not shall be damned.

See that your mission is to preach the gospel to every creature, white or colored, rich or poor, but mark you that our text says "The poor have the gospel preached to them," which may mean poor in wealth and also in spirit, lastly, we are told "go into all the world," wherever man is found, though it be to the ends of the world, north, south, east or west, in Europe, Asia, Africa or Australia an on land or sea, wherever it may be, preach the word until God shall say, "Well done faithful servant." Then we will enter that city John saw to never return again.

Prayer by Rev. H. M. Ellis. A collection of $16.47 was taken by Dr. Bullock. The Executive Board then made its report to the Association.

Doxology. Benediction by Rev. B. B. Hill.

On Resolutions

Since the Woman's Auxiliary is a definite and important part of the Rowan Association,

Be it resolved that all of the pastors explain to their churches that not only the Missionary Societies and other church societies are eligible to representation in the Woman's Auxiliary but every woman member of the church and that all members and especially the women be urged to pay the representation fee of five cents.

Whereas Woman's Auxiliary is destined to do a great work for objects set for this Association,

Be it resolved that we help to support a missionary to work in churches of the Association for three months in the year.

On Grievances

Your Committee on Grievance beg leave to submit the following report:

The first business claiming the attention of the committee was the irregular manner in which one brother W. J. Robbin received his ordination to the gospel ministry. Inasmuch as such irregularity arose from the fact, that said brother failed to receive his ordination upon the recommendation of his mother Church, we advise that the same brother set himself right with his mother church, and if his ordination be carried out in the regular way, we will recognize him as a legally ordained minister.

The next business was a change presented by Rev. F. R. Mason coming from the Mt. Zion Baptist Church of which he is a pastor, concerning some excluded members of the said church being fellowshipped in the Dixonville Baptist Church.

We recommend that a committee be appointed from this Association to go to Salisbury to investigate said matter that each church be informed, through the secretary of the action of this body, advising them to meet with said committee and lay their differences before them, and further that the date for said meeting shall be set by the Association at Union Temple Church Oct. 1.

In respect to the differences existing between the Antioch and Shiloh Baptist Churches, of Winston Salem, we beg to say that since the two pastors of said churches came before the committee and agreed to come to an agreeable settlement of said difference, the said churches may continue their membership in this Association.

Respectfully submitted,

RESOLUTIONS

Since it is a fact that the High Point Association has received into its fellowship a church organized by members who were loyally excluded from the fellowship of churches belonging to the Rowan Baptist Association; be it resolve that the Rowan Baptist Association hereby withdraw the hand of fellowship from the High Point Association until the above named irregularities are properly adjusted. Resolve further; that the secretary be instructed to send a copy of this resolution to the Moderator of the High Point Association.

Respectfully, G. W. Watkins.

Where as this Association has in its letter form as one of the objects to which our churches should contribute the Superannuated preachers and where as there are numbers of aged preachers ministers of the Gospel who have worned themselves out preaching the Gospel and laying the foundation upon which the younger men are now building and where as very little has been given these servants of God from these Association because we have no organized plan to raise money for these purpose. Therefore resolve (1) That this Association will create a board of five members to be known as the ministers' relief board who will have power to raise a fund known as the ministers' relief fund, and that said board shall have power to formulate plans as they may think proper for the purpose of raising money for this object—Resolve 2nd that this baord shall have power to elect its officers annually subject to the approval of this Association . 3rd all preachers and widows of preachers who appeal to this Association for aid must be recomended to this board by some Baptist ministers or layman as a person worthy of this bodies help. Resolve 4th, that the pastors and Deacons be requested to urge the churches to send up a small donation annually to aid the cause. 5th resolve that this board shall be appointed annually by this associaion and that an annual report of all the receipts and disbursements shall be made to this Association. Resolve 6 that all monies raised for ministers' relief fund shall pass through this board

Education.

The education of the youth constitutes one of the most important features of the work in the development of any people. This is a day of forward movement. We owe posterity to educate our children religeously. There is imperative need of a school owned and operated by the Rowan Baptist Association and since this Association has decided to purchase a certain tract of land near Whitney, N. C. for a school site; be it resolved first that we hail the above named action of this Association as the begining of a new era in its history with regards to education work. Resolved second, that each and every pastor and delegate go to their respective communities and churches and upon their constituents to contribute the one dollar per capita for the purchase of a school site: Resolve futher; that this Association continue the encouragement of ministerial education by contributing annually for the training of worthy young men who are in school preparing themselves for the work of the gospel ministry.

RESOLUTION OF THANK

Since it has been the very high privilege of the Rowan Baptist Association to be the recipient of the hospitalities of the Friendship Baptist church and the churches of other denomination of the city; be it resolved, that this Association extend to the pastors and good people of Hickory a hasty vote of thanks for their generous hospitality shown us during our stay here.

Respt. G. W. Watkins.

Temperance.

We your committee on temperance submit the following report

Whereas, we are a band of consecrated Christians, working for the uplift of the race and the spread of the gospel to every nation and whereas, Intemperance is one of the greatest hindrances to the accomplishments of the same. Be it

Resolved, that we discountenance the use of alchoholic liquors as a beverage and that we recommend the uss of unfermented wine at sacrament, and

Whereas, the Bible requires purity in all things and that whereas, we mouth speaks what is in the heart. Be it resolved that we recommend the use of chaste language at all times. We further recommend the use of common sense in dress rather than a blind following of fashion. That we strive to teach by examples as well as precept at all times and in all places the total abstance from all that tends to degrade.

Hickory, N. C., Aug. 22, 1912.

The Executive Board of the Rowan Baptist Association met on the above date to hear the report of the Committee on School Site. The committee reported as follows: We your committee on school site report as follows: On the 25th day of July, 1912, we located a place near Whitney, N. C., and New London, which in our opinion is a splendid place for the location of a school. The property borders on a railroad and is fairly well timbered, with good water and three tenement houses there on, two of them occupied, and enough farm land already open to furnish the occupants with farms. We may have 800 acres or any part of said 800 acres at $25 per acre, with terms that we may wish."

Respectfully submitted,

J. W. Hairston,

G. O. Bullock,

R. Spiller.

On motion, the report of the committee was received with thanks.

After some general expressions of approval of the work of the Committee, the following action was taken by the Ex. Board:

Whereas, we believe that the time is ripe for the beginning of some constructive work by our Association, and

Whereas we believe the site near Witney affords a large opportunity for the immediate undertaking of something tangible for our people, therefore be it,

Resolved 1st, That we purchase at least 150 acres of said 800 acre tract at $25 per acre and more if in the judgment of the committee it is found feasible and practicable,

PRESIDENT'S ANNUAL ADDRESS

Brethren and Co-labors of the Rowan Baptist Association, greeting:

Dear Friends, it is with profound gratitude to our Heavenly Father, that I come before you today in this the sixtieth annual session of our great association. On occasions like this, it is expected of the Presiding Officer to bring to you his annual message or address. If this part of the program could be satisfactory eliminated from the program, it would relieve the Presiding Officer of a good bit of worry, and lift from his mind a great responsibility. But even with this, it affords me very great pleasure to attempt this arduous task, and certainly when I am reminded of your faithfulness, and loyalty to the cause, since it has been my privilege to serve you in this capacity.

I come not to you at this time with any display of oratory, nor any high sounding phrases to tickle your intellectual fancies, but simply to have a face to face and heart to heart talk with you, of the great duties that are involved upon us, as messengers and laborers of the King of the Glory and who are engaged in the King's service and upon whom the King is depending to put over his program.

Therefore I ask, have you been on the service job since last we met? Have you been true to the cause committed to your trust? Have you striven to do your best? Have you gone willingly to every duty that your hands have found to do, saying not my will Lord, but thine be done, or have you imagined your task too hard and like the prophet of old, have gone a contrary course, running from duty, and found yourself caught fast asleep in the midst of a storm?

Christ's Kingdom must be established throughout this earth, and he is depending upon his blood brought children to do the Kingdom work. He has no other army in this world to look to, He has no other hands to use, no other tongues to speak his praise and proclaim his truths. He has no other heart to make His abide but His children. If we fail Him, then must the cause suffer at the hands of His enemies.

As I stand before you today, my mind reflects and thinks of the old fathers, who have long since fallen to sleep in the arms of Jesus, but who were the founders and pioneers of the association. Such as Revs. Cowans, Haughton, Crowel, Ellis, Hargrave, Washington, Holland, Crosby, Johnson, Lewis, Hairstons and others who laid the foundation upon which we now build.

I some times wonder in my mind, that if these Brethren could visit in person some of our Annual Sessions, would they congratulate us on the progress we have made since their day, or would they rebuke us for our slothfulness?

Colaborers, I fear that we are not measuring up to the opportunities and possibilities that God has given us, and that the generations who are to come after us will not be able to rise up and call us blessed. We must go a little further than our fathers went in their day and generation.

I earnestly hope that the very inspiring environment with which we are surrounded at this session will move us to greater activities in doing the Lord's work. We wish to express our highest appreciation to the Baptist of this great city, for the invitation extended us to hold this session of our association with you. For you are a part of us, and have played an important part in the success of this association during these sixty years of its history. We are indeed proud to be assembled here in this city with its many advantages.

Its railroad center, and great business enterprises make it a city of unusual wealth. Then too, it is called the "Queen City" of the State, and ranks second in population of the cities of our great State.

We here, find many large and modernly built churches of all Denominations, both white and colored, which in its self is an expression of the people's faith, love and devotions to the True God.

It was in this city not long since, that a movement was launched to put an end to the teaching of such a Sciences as Evolution that is taught in the public schools of our state, and filling the minds of our youths with doubt and confusion. God bless the good people of Charlotte, who come up to the help of the Lord against the mighty. We find here, the A. M. E. Zion's great Pub lishing House, which is the pride of Zion's great Church and justly so; for it is by the means of this wonderful plant, with here schools, Bishops, preachers, and other great statesmen that Zion has taken her rightful place among the foremost Denominations of the world.

The Johnson C. Smith University is also located here. This School is the great mecca of the colored Presbyterian Church, and has played its part in the Education and Religious training of our young men, and has given to our race many of its great leaders, in every vocation of life. All Denominations have been blessed by this great Institution.

Brethren, not often do we come under such the influence and happy environments as we find ourselves at this session and let me urge you, to take advantage of this great opportunity and go down from this mount of privilege Devinely inspired to render a greater service than you have done before.

I earnestly hope friends, that you have not come up to this sitting merely to make big speeches or to listen to big speeches, to pray long prayers, to sing and shout and then go back to your homes, (as so to speak) to play until the time of our next Annual sitting. But I hope you have come for information and to do the Lord's work. If this is the object of your coming, then we feel assured that this session will be helped, otherwise it can not.

To my mind the Church of Christ has but one main objective in this world, and that is to save the lost souls of men. This was Christ's great Mission, to seek and to save that which was lost; whatever else the Church may do to help people, and to make the world better, it must not neglect its main objective.

(1) The need of a greater vision of our task. Well do the Scriptures teach us, that where there is no vision, the people perish. This has been seen among all races and nations; where they had no leaders with vision they have not been able to make any real progress. As Baptists, we must get a greater vision of our task, and do something big for our Demonstration, or we will awake to our own shame some day, to find ourselves losing out in the game of life, other demonstrations are forging their way on to victory, while many of us stand murmuring over the question who is the greater in the Kingdom of Heaven? Get a vision of your God given task and get on the service job. Do something to help make this world a better place in which to live. Do not sit idle saying, there is nothing I can do, while the souls of men are dying, and the Master calls for you. Take the task He gives you gladly. Let His work your pleasure be. Answer quickly when He calls you; her am I, send me, send me.

(1) Get a vision of the Home Field:

Christ's great plan for Evangelism and Christianizing the world is plainly outlined in Acts 1:8, which says: "But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me, both in Jerusalem and in all Judaea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth." So then your first duty is to get a vision of the Home Field. What are you doing to Evangelize and Christianize the people in your cities, those in the slums and allies? Are the dens of sin and vice being broken up by your Missionary efforts? Do you go into the highways and hedges and compel the host and named, the poor and despised to come, for Christ says all things are now ready (come to the gospel feast.)

What about the sections of our own beloved state where there are no churches and suitable schools in which to preach the gospel and train the young minds for service in this life and the happiness of the world to come; are we doing Extension work, sending missionaries and helping to build churches where the people are poor or ignorant of God's will? If we are not doing this let's stop calling our selves Missionary Baptists until we get a vision of our task and get on the service job.

What about the State work and our duty there? We should work in harmony with our State program. Every church of this Association should feel that it is its duty to support the State work and without your support it is impossible for the work to succeed..

We should do less criticising those in charge and give better support, and those in charge can make a better showing. I plead for a greater support, from all our churches to the State work.

Shaw University, our Baptist College, of which we boast as being the best in perhaps the State, that the colored people have, and certainly the best that the Baptist have, is by no means getting the support that it should from the Baptist as a whole in the state. With just a little effort to the part of the whole Baptist contendency of this state we could raise the one hundred thousand dollars for the endowment fund and no one would have to make any great sacrifice.

This Association has pledged itself to raise twenty thousand ($20,000) of the amount pledged by the State.

Two years have passed and I think I am safe in saying there is not to the credit of this Association one dollar on the endowment fund in the bank.

The reason for this I judge is that the Baptists of the state have been slow in raising the endowment money, and it has taken what our churches have raised and that, that the other few churches throughout the state have raised to pay the $5000.00 which the state pledged to raise yearly for Shaw.

I wish I could appeal to the consciousness of the pastors and officers of the church of this Association, and get them to see the importance of contributing to the larger work of the Kingdom of God, and that God is expecting more of them than to simply raise enough money to pay pastors, salary, the sexton, the organist, light bills and to do a little repair work on their churches occasionally. I wish I could get them to look beyond their narrow, selfish horizon, and see the large field of ripening harvest calling them to service.

(2) Get a vision of the Foreign Field. Sad and pitiful is the call coming to us for help from the Foreign Fields. Africa, Haiti and Russia are special fields of operation, to say nothing of our debt we owe to all heathen lands, for our God is the God of the universe, and loved the world so dearly that He gave His Son to take away sin of the world. He is no respecter of person: But in every nation he that feareth Him, and walketh in the righteousness is accepted with Him.

Christians how can you satisfy your conscience and be at ease while heathens in the foreign lands are worshiping their idol gods because they have no knowledge of the true God? Is it no concern to you whether they are saved or eternally lost? Are you not willing to give off your means to send the gospel to them, that they too may learn to know Christ, and to know right is eternal life?

Just think of the Missionaries who have sacrificed the comforts of home and friends and have encountered dangers on sea and land to go and carry the message of salvation to a benighted people. We should pray for them daily, contribute weekly that the Missionaries might be strengthened, and comfortably situated to do their work which they feel called to do in the Lord's name. God help us to awake to the needs of Foreign Mission cause.

The Organization of the State Which We Should Support

To my mind it is very important that we as an Association should better acquaint ourselves with the various organizations of the State that look to us for support.

I realize the fact that many of our churches do not know about some of the organizations with which they are supposed to be identified. We have no missionary on the field to inform them, and some times the pastors and delegates on their return from the Association seem to forget to do so, therefore I will simply remind you of them.

(1) Our great State Convention, or the Baptist Education and Missionary Convention, which is made up of all the associations of the State. Every church through its association should support this Convention. While there is no objection on the part of the Association to churches sending their money directly to the Convention, but the association of which it is a member should get credit for what the church gives.

If the churches withhold their support from its association that makes the association helpless to give any real support to the Convention.

Each church should take pride in sending up through its association a respectable donation to help build up a good strong convention in the State. Not only its representation in the Association but money for Education and State Missions.

If our State Convention is not properly functioning it is because it is not getting support from our churches and Association that it should get.

(2) Our Baptist State Sunday School Convention. Like the Baptist Education and Missionary Convntion, tht Sunday School Convention is made up of the Sunday Schools of our churches. In some sections of the State where they have district conventions, some of our Sunday School represent in the State Convention through its district convention. But all the Sunday Schools of our churches should do their Education and Missionary work through the State Sunday School Convention.

(3) The Women's Baptist State Convention like the other two conventions mentioned above, look for support from all the Baptist churches of the State, and cannot do a creditable work for the cause without it.

This convention has assumed the responsibility of at least, the salaries of two of our Missionaries, who are now in Africa at work, this is their special obligation and thep also help to do the State work as well as take care of their obligation to the Foreign Mission cause. We should heartily support this Convention.

(4) The Lott Carey Foreign Mission Convention through which we all do Foreign Mission work, demands our unstinted loyalty. Every church in this Association should send money up to this Convention and help the work of Foriegn Missions. If it is not convenient for then to send your pastors as delegate then you should send a donation through the Association for this most worthy cause.

May I ask your indulgence for just a few minutes longer and permit me to speak briefly of the other conventions whos fields of conventions are to my mind equal in importance as the These conventions are to my mind equal in importance as the other which I have spoken of, but to save time and space I wish to mention them, and ask you to give them your hearty support.

They are as follows: (1) The Western Sunday School Convention, led by professor R. W. Brown, as its President. This convention is the pride of the Baptist young people of this Pied mont Section.

(2) The Women's Auxiliary to the Rowan Association, led by Mrs. F. R. Mason, and this auxiliary since its organinatoin has worked side by side with this association and helped to put over its great program.

Every church of this association should represent in its annual meetings and every pastor should attend it.

(5) The Western Education and Missionary Convention led by Dr. F. R. Mason and the Women's Convention of Western, N. C., led by Mrs. L. R. Chanis; these two conventions have planned a great program, which if carried out according to the vision of their president; will doubtless be successful in revolutionizing things for the Baptist of Western N. C. Let us encourage them and give them our support.

Lastly but not least is the Ushers' Convention, which is composed of the Usher Boards of the churches of this Association. It was our good pleasure to have them meet with us last year in their first annual meeting, and our fellowship together was very inspiring, and helpful. It was by their assistance that we were able to make a better showing in our Education and Missionary gifts last year..

Mr. J. W. Crowder, the President is very energetic and tireing in his efforts to make this Convention a success. He is also supported by some of the best young men and women in our churches, we wish for them at this session the greatest success possible.

I also wish to call your attentions to the Union Reformer, the organ of the Baptist of the State. We must support our paper, it may not be all that we would like to see it be but that is a good way to make it less than what it is by neglecting it, don't take, nor pay for, or try to get others to pay for it; take it, we should do our best to try to get a subscription for it in every Baptist home in the State.

Now before concluding, I wish to call the attention of this delegation to the serious illness of Rev. H. M. Ellis, our beloved vice moderator of the Association. His condition at this time seems doubtful of his recovery, nothing of course is impossible with God.

I want to ask, that at the close of my address, that before we take up the other part of the program that we, as an association bow in prayer to our Heavenly Father in behalf of our brother beloved.

And that before we adjourn the session, that some little token of our love and respect be sent him to remind him of our thoughts of him at this session.

Recommendations

(1) That we secure a statement of all the money that this Association and churches contribute through the various Conventions in which we represent each year, so as to be able to report at our Annual Sessions the total amount contributed by this Association and churches during the Associational year.

(2) That the plan suggested by the Board of Promotion of the Baptist State Convention and adopted by the Executive Board of this Association for this year, to raise money for State and Foreign Missions be made permanent for the present (viz.) That the Executive Board of each Association pledge a certain amount per church, rating it according to membership of each of its churches.

(3) Since Shaw University has eliminated its High School, department and does now only College work, that we study more carefully the need of a good "A" grade Baptist High School in Western N. C., and that we cooperate in full with the Western Convention in its endeavor to build and operate such a school in which to train our Baptist young people.

(4) That since there seems to be a sort of weakning and a falling away on the part of some Baptists from the true or real principle and doctrines of the Baptist Church, that we pledge ourselves a new creed to hold to the profession of our faith without wavering and preach without compromise the One Lord the one faith and one Baptism, and that churches which are of gospel order, shall not be encouraged nor supported by us.

(5) That we do not give up the effort of trying to create a fund for the aged ministers of this Association so as to be able to give them some assistance in their declining years.

And that along with this fund, we also create a fund to help poor struggling churches in their efforts to build, and at the same time try to pay a pastor.

(6) That we encourage the idea of as many of the churches of this Association as will, to assume the scholarship fee of some worthy boy or girl in Africa, and help him or her to secure a Christian education.

May I now ask the cooperation of each minister and delegate at this setting to work in peace and harmony to make this a "record breaking" session.

Your Humble Moderator,

J. T. Hairston.

PROCEEDINGS

Charlotte, N. C., Aug. 18, 1926.

The Rowan Baptist Association met in its 60th annual session with the First Baptist Church, Charlotte, N. C.

Praise services were conducted by Rev. Adolphus Smith and Rev. L. C. Foster. "Blest be the Tie." was sung and Rev. Smith read the 6th chapter of St. Matthew. Dr. F. R. Mason led in prayer. Rev. Foster then sang "Oh speed the Chrstian on thy way." Prayer was offered by Rev. D. S. Saulter. Several spirit-uals were then sung and the Moderator made a short address in which he expressed his joy and pleasure at meeting with the brethren again after another twelve months of hard labor in the Master's vineyard. He then set aside the usual time for expressions from the brethren from over the field. Deacon Wilson, of Greensboro and Deacon Jennings of same city delighted the brethren with encouraging remarks. Deacon G. A. Burton gave words of greeting from the New Zion church near Salis-bury. After the Association had enjoyed a real spiritual feast in the song, "I am in His care," Deacon P. T. Hairston, from the Cedar Grove church, near Advance, N. C., said he had come here to be spiritually fed and that he had gained much by his coming. He also said he rejoiced at the success of the ministers who had gone out from his church. Deacon C. B. Hairston pleas-ingly entertained the brethren as he told of he Lord's work at High Point. Dr. G. H. E. Washington brought greetings to the brethren from the High Point Association. Deacon Woodruff said he had already gained much inspiration and felt better pre-pared now to do larger work for the Master. He paid special tribute to the Moderator, Secretary and Assistant Secretary.

Rev. J. H. E Nelson, who is doing so much in Concord for the Master's cause spoke to the delight of the Association. Rev. Thomas, Rev. F. R. Mason and Prof. Brown formed the Committee on Enrollment.

Doxology was sung and the benediction was pronounced by Dr. F. R. Mason.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON

The Moderator, introduced Rev. C. C. Crofford to preach the introductory sermon, associated by Rev. J. W. Crom. He took for a text: I Cor. 14:20. Subject: "Men wanted." I Cor. 13:11. He spoke of his subject as one of general use; said there is reason for men being wanted—not women or children. He has a great task and for this reason, men are wanted. The problems are great, children will not be able to put over God's program unless some great change is made. Men must get a vision of the Christ and to get it, we must lift up the Cross instead of self. We must draw closer to the image of Christ for a better view. Four ways to view a city: Ground Mold view; surface view; elevated view. Air View. We must see Christ from all angles. The Association requires men who have vision, men with mind, men who are willing to bend. God is calling for men who will carry the message. God wants men who can make programs and execute them. We want men not only to suggest but to execute programs. God has no other agency save the church. The sermon was quite inspiring and enjoyed by many according to their outbursts of amens. The sermon was closed with an earnest prayer by the minister. "Get right with God," was led by Bro. C. B. Hairston.

After some words of comment on the sermon by Dr. R. L. File, he then serving as Vice-Moderator, introduced the Moderator, Ds. J. T. Hairston, to deliver his annual message. Dr. Hairston then came before the audience with a very inspiring message as usual. (See president's address.)

At this hour came the sad news of the death of the Vice Moderator, Rev. H. M. Ellis. The Association adjourned out of respect for the deceased brother, after earnest prayers had been offered for his helpless widow.

WEDNESDAY NIGHT

The Association met at 8 o'clock. After the regular devotional exercises and some remarks by the pastor the local program was listened to with much pleasure and interest. All the welcome addresses were good and the delegates felt very much at home. The Moderator then well chosen words introduced Dr. R. L. File, who chose for his text II Timothy 1-10. His sermon was full of thought and enthusiasm. The people rejoiced at his great deliverances and all felt the Lord was in the place. The choirs followed with beautiful and spiritual music. A collection amounting to $31.93 was lifted and the benediction was pronounced by Rev. R. L. File, D. D.

THURSDAY MORNING

The Association met at 9:30. The devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. A. C. Miller and Rev. Harold Hargrave. Rev. Miller sung hymn 454. Rev. Hargrave read 12th chapter of the Romans and prayer was offered by Deacon Jackson. At the conclusion of the devotion, Dr. J. H. Moore being absent, Dr. C. C. Somerville, ex-Moderator spoke to the delight of the great assembly, on Christ's conversation with the ruler of the Jews.

Following Dr. Somerville, Dr. F. R. Mason spoke on "How to increase attendance upon the mid-week prayer meeting." The following points were brought out: 1. Pastor and officers should attend each service. 2. Organize four contesting prayer meeting groups; try for three months. 3. Announce meeting week ahead. 4. Begin on time. 5. Wise choice of songs talks, etc.

At this point, the Treasurer, Auditor, Statistician and Historian all made their reports which were adopted.

Johnson were asked to aid in devotions. 27th Psalm was read by Brother Johnson. Rev. Penn led in prayer. The Moderator making some announcements introduced Rev. L. C. Huff to speak from the subject as programmed: "Our local interests in the West." We should have some central office, some way of publishing our doings. Our educational interests. The church and state are separate. It is the duty of the church to religiously educate. The church is the most powerful agency in the world. The Convention is organized for all and not a few.

Our interest in churches. We must in a wise way, get a hold on our people.

The address of Rev. Huff was well taken, full of thought and much inspiration.

Revs. Taylor and Anderson were introduced to the Association and spoke briefly.

Every sin begins in the sin of thought. The mission of Christianity wants to control the thoughts of men. In all crises man's thought comes to the front. He referred to Joseph in Egypt; how he came to the front because of his thought. Thought disciplined and sanctified, thought must be captured. The man of thought speaks and inventions of various kinds are produced. Thought cannot be forced. The mind is a city. Products tell the quality of things. How can this be done? Not by might nor by power, but by my Spirit. The cross must transform man. The sermon was concluded in a cloud of enthusiasm which seemed to burst upon the heads and hearts of the audience. "Whosoever Will" was sung by Rev. Foster. Dr. S. L. Parham led in fervent prayer. Rev. P. P. Eaton was asked to lead in song and sang "Sunshine." He then sang another selection and opened the doors of the church. The Moderator said "Now while we are happy, let us take the collection." and asked Rev. J. P. Alexander and Rev. File to take the collection.

Benediction by Rev. P. P. Eaton.

COMMITTEE ON OBITUARY AND CONDOLENCE

We Your Committee, on Obituary and Condolence, beg leave to submit the following:

That whereas it has pleased Almighty God through His wise providence to call from our midst during the past year, and even while present in this session of our Association so many of the members and churches within our bands male, female among both the old and young of our great family. Among these are found many of our Church officers, leaders of missionary circles of every discription of our Church's program.

1. That whereas God has seen fit to call from this world during the past year many of our most faithful, and loyal members. We therefore commend the homes churches, and committees, from which they have fallen to God, who does all things well.

2 That whereas, many among those who fell asleep during the past year, were among the church's leading officers, we therefore pray God's blessings upon such churches', and beloved families, that God's richest blessings rest upon them.

3. That whereas some of the ministers of the gospel have fallen during the past year and even our dear and beloved Rev. Ellis, who fell Wednesday afternoon at 2:30, August 18th. We recommend letter of Condolence written by Prof W. N. Nelson be sent to the family and recommending all whose hearts have been in morn or may be broken, while we separate one from another, be recommended to the God of sympathy and love.

Respectfully the Committee,

F. R. Mason, J. J. Scarlett, R. W. Brown and C. F. Graves,

PROCEEDINGS
of the
WOMAN'S AUXILIARY
to the
ROWAN BAPTIST ASSOCIATION

Mrs. F. R. Mason ----- President.
Mrs. M. E. Paisley, ----- Recording Secretary.

Mt. Airy, N. C., July 21, 1926.

The Woman's Auxiliary to the Rowan Baptist Association met at the First Baptist church of which Rev. Haughton is pastor. At 10 A. M., the Thanksgiving service was led by Sisters Mary Joplin and Lottie Brown. Although the hour was early, quite a large delegation was on hand ready for service.

At the close of this service, the president of the Auxiliary, Sister F. R. Mason, came forward and with fitting preliminary remarks opened the business by appointing the following Committee on Enrollment of Delegates: Sister Hattie Ezell, chairman Sisters Hattie Christian, Maude Moorehead. The program for the session was then adopted.

Assignment of homes was next. Rev. J. W. Hairston was appointed reporter for the Auxiliary at the suggestion of Sister Lucy Thompson. Introduction of new delegates and visitors. Adjournment.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON

Praise service led by Sisters Layman, Mack, and Johnson. At the conclusion of this glorious service, the president came forward and announced the topic for discussion: "Who in the Christian family should be most active, men or Women?" After noting that Sister Ida Davis who was to lead in the discussion had not arrived, the president opened the discussion. Brothers Hawkins, F. R. Mason, Sisters Lucy Thompson and Ada Glenn spoke on the topic. Following the discussion, we all felt that each parent has an equal share in the Christian activities of our children. At this point, Rev. Johnson kindly consented to preach the opening sermon which was to have been preached by Rev. W. M. Williams of Winston-Salem who was detained by illness. Prayer was offered by Brother Robinson. Rev. Johnson, of Reidsville, then preached a soul-stirring sermon. The Scripture lesson was found in John 21:15. Text: "What s that to thee? Follow thou me." Some of the points impressed in the sermon were: We must follow Jesus to the mount of parayer; in the field of ser-vce; in the garden of sorrow, in the tomb of death, in the resurrection. At the close of the sermon, Rev. R. L. File led in prayer. Solo by Sister Joplin. Collection taken by Rev. P. P. Eaton and N. L. Scarborough. Amount $7.25.

The following Committee on Finance was appointed: Sister M. A. Yores, chairman; Sisters Etta Clement, Nancy Mason, Ada Glenn, Katie Craver.

Praise service led by Sister Heggie Redwine.

Following the praise service, we greatly enjoyed the following local program:

Welcome on behalf of the Methodist church, Rev. Newsome. On behalf of the Frst Baptist church (hite) Rev. Davis. On behalf of the A. M. E. church, Rev. C. Hodges.

Vocal solo, Miss Gertie Banner.

Response to the addresses, Rev. Huff.

Music was furnished by the choir of the Methodist church.

Sermon, Rev. N. L. Scarborough. His text was found in Matthew 26:39. Text: "And he went a little farther." Subject: "The secret of victory." Truly our hearts did burn while Rev. Scarborough talked to us. Among the many good things, he said: "God is expecting us to go a little farther. Go a little farther in your out-reaching program." In closing this wonderful sermon, he said the victory of success depends on going a little farther.

Prayer, Rev. L. Foster.

Solo, Sister Maude Moorehead.

Collection, Revs. Robbins and Johnson. Amount, $14.00.

THURSDAY NIGHT

Praise service led by Sisters Hattie Cousin, Avatna Garnes. and L. L. Walker. Sister Walker read 1st Corinthians 1st chapter for Scripture Lesson. Following the praise service, the program of the evening was begun with music by the M. E. church choir.

Vocal duet—Sisters Jimmie Jennings and Ezell.

Then followed the President's annual address. As usual, we all settled ourselves comfortably in our seats, because from past experiences we know what to expect of our president and just as we expected, she brought us a concise and inspiring message. Among the many good suggestions and advice, these are some: She paid high tribute to the willingness of Women for service. She plead for the right observance of the Lord's Day. She urged the support of missions. She earnestly advised the youth, especially the girls to make their mothers their confidants, who are always willing to point out the right way. Her resolutions were few but to the point. The entire address will appear in the minutes.

Solo, Miss Alma McAdoo. Sermon, Rev. P. P. Eaton of East Market St. Baptist church, Greensboro, N. C. His text was found in Hebrews 1:4. "Are they not all ministering spirits?" Subject: "Ministering angels." Again we were very greatly blessed with a wonderful sermon. I know Rev. Eaton must have been at his best while he talked so forcefully to us about the ministering angels. We all felt the spirit and for a while, the church seemed to be in danger—everyone seemed so happy.

Collection by Revs. J. W. Hairston and Mason—$12.30.

FRIDAY MORNING

Praise service led by Sisters Joyce, Ward and others.

At the close of the praise service, the topic "Do the fashions displayed increase the wave of crime?" was very interestingly discussed by Rev. J. T. Hairston, Sister L. L. Walker, Sister D. Pritchett, Rev. J. W. Hairston, Sister Ezelle, Rev. Johnson, Sister Nannie Mason.

Which has the most effect on child life, the home or the school? This topic was most ably discussed by Sister Martha Yores.

At this point all business was set aside for the memorial service which was conducted by Sisters Ada Glenn and Lucy Lea. We felt sad as we listened to the death report coming from our different churches. The Death Angel had been busy during the year and it made us feel more anxious to draw nearer to God so as to be ready when our summons' come. Appropriate words were spoken and songs were sung at this service.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON

Praise service led Sisters M. J. Allington and Gertrude Hairston. The minutes were read and adopted. Sister L. L. Walker, of Charlotte, N. C. then came forward bringing greetings from the Woman's State Convention and made helpful remarks.

Topic: Do we place proper emphasis on our Doctrine as a denomination? (a) Home life, Sister Avatna Garnes beautifully and forcefully told us our duty as to the teaching of our Doctrine in our homes.

(b) Ordinances, Rev. F. R. Mason very intelligently and simply explained the meaning of the ordinances of Baptism, the Lord's Supper, and Prayer. He urged us to put special emphasis on the three named ordinances. Rev. W. T. Johnson also spoke on the same topic.

(c) Public worship, Sister Emma Joyce.

The following committees made reports which were adopted:
On Officers, on Temperance, on Missions, on Junior Supervisors.

FRIDAY NIGHT

Praise services led by Sisters Joplin, Thompson and Ward.

After praise service, the president came forward and asked for a collection for Rev. Haughton, pastor of the church who had worked so untiringly for our comfort. $12.03 were collected. Rev. N. L. Scarboorugh then read John 15th chapter. Prayer by Rev. James Galloway. Rev. Scarborough then presented Rev. J. H. Hamlin of New Bethel Baptist church, Winston-Salem, who preached another soul-stirring sermon. Subject: "Is the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, our God? If so, why not serve Him?" Text: Psalm 48:15: For this, our God is our God and God will be our guide until death. We were again blessed with the outpouring of the Holy Spirit.

Collection was taken by Rev. F. R. Mason and Rev. W. T. Johnson. Amount, $30.00

Thus closed one of the best meetings of the Woman's Auxiliary. Next meeting will be held at Statesville, N. C.—First Baptist church.

The Executive Board met Friday morning at whch time the president spoke encouragingly about the work during the year and also gave some helpful suggestions for the work of the coming year.

After listening to a very earnest talk by Sister Jimmie Jennings concerning the future of her brother, especially along the educational lines, the board decided that the Auxiliary would help in sending him to Shaw University. It also decided to give a donation to Rev. Haughton, his wife, and his church.

PRESIDENT'S ANNUAL ADDRESS

Mrs. T. R. Mason

Mount Airy, N. C.

July 1926

Members of the Woman's Auxiliary and Friends:

Again God's Providence and goodness have enabled us to meet in this Annual Session. We have had many varied changes during the past year, nevertheless, we are thankful to be here and see each other face to face.

Seven years ago we were assembled here in Mt. Airy. Those who were present in our sessions then, can remember how God's Spirit ruled the meeting and how our hearts rejoiced. As I look, seemingly I can see Sisters Keck and Heggie, as they presented to us the idea of consecration. How they prayed so fervently for our young women. Now they have crossed and no doubt their spirits are with us, and seemingly they say "Run on with patience the race set before you." Many others too have gone since the meeting here. The hand of affliction is upon some also. We miss our beloved Sister Ellis, also Rev. Ellis. Yet we know they are God's hand and He will keep them in perfect peace and provide for their needs.

Sisters, there is no new phase of work I bring before you to night, the same old paths are to be trodden, until we tread the paths of sin and ignorance down. You who read the daily news each day, can readily see, why the Christian family should unite as one and place the standard of Christianity higher and lift up the cross of Christ to a sin stricken world. Never before has America reached or known such a crime wave. Every paper is filled with homicide. Children murderers, women murderers, men murderers.. Parents slaying their children, children slaying their parents, husbands killing their wives, wives killing their husbands in this land of the free and where churches are built on almost every corner, school houses and colleges placed every where. What are the heathern nations saying? How do they judge our religion? O, you say we are not doing that, it is the bad men and women, we don't do any of that. Listen, do you live in America? Are you a Christian? What is your influence? This is happening in every city. Are you not a drop in the bucket? One little pebble dropped in the ocean, will start a wave and after a while the whole ocean surface is moving. You do your part, touch some one, soon the wave of Christianity will be over the entire country. We cannot do this by living on selfish street. Rearing our own children and neglecting our neighbors.

Some may say it is the Church's duty, well who make up the churches? Supposedly the Christian; then are you not a member of the Church? Are you not commanded to "Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works and glorify your Father which is in heaven?"

Are ye, not the salt of the earth? Aren't you commanded to lift up Christ, so He may draw all men unto Him. Do you know, if we believe God's word as we should and lived according, the few Women, to us are entrusted the care and training of our children." He said, "In as much as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, Ye have done it unto me."

It should be the one great joy of our lives to be conscious of the fact, that we are benefiting others by projecting our influence for good if we are sending our rays both home and abroad. As I stand before you, I wonder if we as women realize our task? Do we know the work of missions should be the one great ideal of our lives? The great opportunity of lifting the fallen, caring for the erring, sending the gospel to the heathern and establishing Christ in every home of our own America, is our great task, and how joyfully should we go about it. It is generally conceded by all who have studied carefully the needs of humanity, that we fill a place in the religious and social world peculiar to our sex. Women can understand and sympathize. They have the gentleness to touch and can discern better than men, the things which make for the better than men, the things which make for the betterment of mankind and it is woman's willingness which demands her best service to the world. With her God given initiative and preparedness of heart and mind, she readily answers "Here am I send me." Are you of that kind? As we know today we are living in a world of invention and revolution. The spirit of unrest is every where. The strife of tongues is heard from every forum and groups of men from the laborer to the law makers and the executive powers of the world. Evils are overcoming; let us pause and think. 'Tis only true when the Christians allow conditions to change and we as women must impress the soothing spirit of Christianity by our consecration to Him who said, "Without me, ye can do nothing but if ye abide in me and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will and it shall be done unto you." What are you asking? Do you want His Kingdom to come and peace to reign? Realizing then with our lives truly consecrated, I believe time will soon revole back to the most essential—the Christian era." The spirit of self denial, the spirit of living and giving.

As I study the youth of our land and the increasing wave of crime, my eyes become blinded with tears and once more the question comes. Who is responsible for conditions as they are? Women, to us are entrusted the care and traininf of our children. Their moral and religious training begins with us. Their future lives and usefulness to succeeding generations, depends largely upon the impressions brought to bear upon them. What impressions do we make? Shall we remedy conditions in our community and city, or are we so interwoven with fashions and pleasures of this world that we cannot reach out a hand which comes from a clean life full of pure motives, and stop our boys and girls in this mad rush of destruction? Our lives are times of sowing and he or she is unwise who does not look for the harvest.

Now sisters, if you are waiting and looking to do great things you will miss working in God's Vineyard, for it is in the little things we see God's greatness. He is great in big things, but notice, if you please, the mechanism of the minute things of life. Then realize further that your service is very much needed in the community in which you live. This will be one test of your religion. The desire to help those around you, to bring cheer to those in sorrow.

Some do not regard this as Missionary work. They would rather go away from home to work. Honesty is one of the best by which we are known. Real men and women will pay their just and honest debts in the material world, but forget their moral obligations are equally binding. The debt of lifting the fallen, giving to the needy. God wants our service every day and it is a glorious privilege to be a co-worker with Him. This is the highest honor one can receive. Unless love predominates our lives, our efforts will be in vain. The purest and noblest love, is the love for humanity. If we do this we can soon check the crime wave. , Christ taught His disciples a love that should not be contented, while anyone was naked, cold, hungry or needed to be brought to hear the gospel.

Most Home Mission work can be done by everyone present, all is invested in time and service. Telling the story of the wonderful plan of salvation, try to bring this dark, discordant world back to God. No other way is mapped out, but by the followers of Christ. His is the only one way that will unite the world—the races of mankind into one family. The Fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man. We make a step upward, when we do as well as say. Our destitute people would not always go wrong if we light bearers would carry a torch some time in the desolate hordes in which they live. Christ went about doing good; we want others to do our part. Welfare workers, we say look after such things. Truly, and so long as we shift the burden so long sin predominates. ,

No doubt there are many Christians here to night, who have never spoken to a poor outcast. Never have invited them to Church or Sunday School. Has not told a poor wayward girl about the blood of Jesus, that cleanses from all sin. Your money does not amount to much if it is not given with the same amount of service. We cannot pay our way and not serve.

As I look tonight at you, I am wondering what kind of representatives are we. We are Ambassadors, sent out by God. Are we looking after His business, are we like the man with one talent? Look! the harvest fields are white. Our best life is not that which we live alone. Our best life, is when we link ourselves together and loose our wills in consecrated service.

Again, we want to know, where and how to obtain the needed strength for service. God's Word should be carefully studied. Here is where we gain knowledge for His Work. Prayer is the means by which we obtain strength and love for our fallen man. This is how we guard the paths of duty. Often while we fail when we think we are strong, and it is because there is a desire for fame and not a little love exists in our hearts for one another.

The world looks on and laughs at the division among us. Our faith as a denomination is weak. We do not put enough emphasis upon our Church in teaching our boys and girls. They are not steadfast as they should be. Unless we put ourselves on the altar, with a desire to serve God, with soul, strength and mind, our children will not even know anything about the doctrine of our Church, nor be brought up in the faith of our fathers.

Sisters, there are so many things I would like to call to your attention. One is the "Sabbath observance." Last week I noticed in our own beloved State, that the city of Asheville has opened its doors for baseball games on Sunday, amusement parks to be opened. A few Christians are trying to over rule and not allow it; but the majority says it is for them to say. Do you not know, when a man robs God his heritage is cut short. I pray, our State will over rule such as has been stated, and give God His own.

Sunday is one of the greatest blessings God has given to man; but it is a blessing too often abused. After God created the heavens and the earth, He rested from His labors. If rest was needed for Him, how much more is it needed for us. Surely we need the Sabbath to assemble, and implore divine aid, for another weeks journey and givethanks for protection for the day gone by. Today, many make it a day of frolicking and pleasure, feasting and joyriding, making many lives bitter. Many fail to attend places of worship. Let us not forget the nations that forgot God. Not only should we attend Church services, but we should strive to get others to go. This is a splendid way to do Home Mission work. What is needed to evangelize the world, is the cooperation of the whole body of church members. The heathenism in our cities is appalling and awful object misery, property of all the worst features hide in the alleys danes and crowded tenements of our great centers of population. No outside organization, no district visitations, no organized charities, no mission halls, all this evil, it must be reached through personal, individual, mechanism, mingled with the spirit of Christ, in which a desire, to find our brother burns in our hearts. Look up, behold "The fields are now ripe for harvest." Many mothers are before me tonight, and as you look into each others faces, I see a bond that binds you together, also an anxious enquiring look which asks the question "What shall I do to save my boys and girls?" Who will answer? The world offers so many inducements, society makes such bold challenges, what shall we suggest? We must do and give something in exchange for such inducements. Christ says we may find in Him all we need, but we are not making our religion, charming and practical enough for our children to realize this. We may put too much stress upon teaching them to prepare for death which is very important, but teaching them how to live is more vastly important. Mothers are careless in many things, now adays. Fashion has made it so unless you look in the faces of mothers, you cannot tell them from their daughters. When the age rolls around, that the proper examples by old Christians are displayed and honesty existing among mothers, we need not fear for the standard of our children.

This is a feature of Home Mission work that is sadly neglected. Last September, while in Norfolk attending the Lott Carey Foreign Mission Convention, I thought so much of this, our Auxiliary, I wish you all could have been there and heard Mr. Bryant, a native African talk about our people over there. How often he would say, "We are expecting the Christians of America to send us the gospel." Then how he told of the untiring work and sacrificing of our Missionaries over there. He said, "With all your surroundings, your schools and churches, you are obliged to serve God." I Wonder do we appreciate all of our blessings? As I listened, I said there are members of this our Auxiliary, who never give any amount for Foreign Missions, those of us who give, place such small amount in the missionary baskets, until it is hardly what we would call given. A stream that has no outlet, becomes stagnant, or dries up. Why we do not prosper more, is because we withhold from the main service. We have not as yet realized that the Missionaries on Foreign Fields, are only serving in our stead and surely we ought to support ourselves. Bear Christ to the heathen and you will be uplifted, strengthened and divinely impelled in your work. We are not to stand in the world and testify to Christ; but stand in Christ and testify to the world, not philanthropy the love of man; but the love of Christ constitutes the greatest missionary motive. In organizing our W. I. C. Circles and Sunshine Bands, make a large space among them for the support of Foreign Missions. Tell them of the children Russia, Africa, India, Haiti and the Isles of the sea, who do not have the opportunity of the Sunday School and Church as they have, instill the Missionary spirit in them, while they are young; if we but sow the seed, God will give the increase. Don't go away from here and not begin to do something for both Home and Foreign Missions.

Our Educational Project

As I said last year, our Educational project is in the hands of the brethren, when they say go forward, we are ready to move. Nevertheless, we should give something to our School, Shaw University. It is ours and we should help support it. We know it is a school that stands for Christianity, and is the outstanding Institution of the State.

The Children's Program

I enjoyed the children's program today, as I listened to them my heart was made to rejoice. They too will soon gather the much needed inspiration, if they will only rely upon God. Remembering, to seek first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things will be added unto them. Stir clear all evils and those that appear evil. Remember, "that religion, never was designed to make our pleasures less." Nothing shocked me so much as few weeks ago when I read of a young man, only 21 years of age and a young girl 15 years old on a lonesome Mountain road alone. The young girl was instantly killed by being shot, and the young man died last week. He claimed that he was shot and she was killed by some young man named Jimmy. He died without making anything clear. Two lives blotted out. Young women, beware of the Automobile rides alone. Make your mothers your confidants, they will tell you about your company. Apparently the young girl was visiting, and had recently met the young man. She was too young even to have been out riding, day or night. But listen children, there is danger always ahead, when you take affairs in your own hand. Your best counselor is a mother, your tenderest friend is a mother, your shield, a mother, so take her always in your affairs. Do not let pleasure cause you to forget your Creator. Remember Him in your youthful days, and He will remember you, when evil days draw nigh. From an honest, upright character, which will be a bulwark against temptations. Temptations are all around, but temptations are nothing, our yielding is the sin. Give all your life and time to one who can give eternal life and eternity for an exchange for what you have given.

If you will read good literature and associate with good companions, placing your Bible above all books, success and happiness will attend your pathway. We are here to give you a stimulus by our own examples.

As we are dear sisters, standing before the girls and boys as lamps, do not allow our globes to become smoked. No one can see through a smutty black globe. The things we may like, must be weighed. The apostle Paul said "If eating meat causeth my brother to stumble, I will eat no more meat as long as the world stands." Place pride and fashion on the scale and make a like statement.

Conclusion

Let me remind you as I conclude, this world of ours is in a state of restlessness. Every where there is a certain uneasiness, every where dissatisfaction, disquietude, yearning aspiration movement. Our brilliant work of discovery and inventions are not proving to be parents of contentment. Science brings her bountiful gifts, but even the privileged, who enjoy them are not quiet and found in peace. Our age is breeding great scientists, great discoveries, great inventors; but we are not at rest. The soul of our complicated age is clamoring for its own. Our age has mere comforts, but it lacks satisfaction. It has mere love, but it lacks peace, it has more knowledge; but it is still seeking and it is to you women of God's Army to bring a calm and panacea. Do this through offering God's Word and teach its precepts and the contents of the Book of Books, in your home, to your children, on the streets and every where when an opportunity presents itself.

Our home land is fast being led away from God's Word. Rise up like women and defend His teaching. We believe in Science; but what we know of mysteries come from God. Science has wrought many achievements, but it has not cleared up a single mystery concealed by God. Evolution may be true, but let the scientist tell whence the mind that developed Evolution began. We are not worried about Evolution ourselves, neither do we want it taught to our children. We know from whence all things began. We know that in the begining God and in the end God, and when we wish to know anything new, we go and talk with Him and He clears away all mysteries, for a little talk with Him makes life brighter all the while.

"I know the way is dreary to yonder far off clime,
But a little talk with Jesus will wile away the time;
And yet the more I know Him, and all His grace explore,
It only sets me longing to know Him more and more.

I cannot live without Him, nor would I if I could;
He is my daily portion, my medicine and my food,
He's altogether lovely, none can with Him compare
The Chief among ten thousand, the fairest of the fair.

So I'll a little longer, 'til His appointed time;
And glory in the knowledge that such a hope is mine;
Then in my Father's dwelling, where many mansions be;
I'll sweetly talk with Jesus, and He shall talk with me."

My resolutions are few, I only ask that you carefully consider them:

1st. I recommend that we prayerfully study God's Word and teach it to our children.

2nd. That we, as Members of this Auxiliary raise the standard of Womanhood and hold to the doctrine and faith of our forefathers; That we put away the idea of fame, but work together with love and cooperate both in this work and work of our churches disregarding gossip and holding malice one to another.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

Committee on Resolutions

We, your Committee on Resolutions, beg to submit the following report:

Since Christian education fits for good citizenship and Christian service, be it resolved that we, the members of the Woman's Auxiliary lend every aid for the promotion of education for the youth of our state.

And further that we resolve, as members of the Woman's Auxiliary to lend our aid and endorsement to purposeful effort along the line of an elementary school for the Baptist youth of Western North Carolina, to stand as a monument to our efforts and results of our prayer while laboring here in this field.

2nd. That since the question of evolution is one of the great issues of the day, that we, as members of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Rowan Baptist Association who have been redeemed by the blood of Jesus Christ, that we, as members representing one Lord, one faith, one baptism, stand up for the principles laid down in God's Book.

3rd. Be it resolved that a token of our appreciation for the loyal service of our beloved president be presented her in the near future in the form of resolutions, drawn up by a Committee appointed at this meeting and a copy be sent to the Christian paper.

4th. And whereas, the Christian paper is the organ of the Negro Baptist Association and the state at large and is rendering great service to this auxiliary by publishing our articles and proceedings and keeping us informed of our work all over the state. Be it resolved that all who can do so, subscribe to it at once and lend what encouragement possible for its hearty existence.

5th. We, the Auxiliary of the Baptist church in Mt. Airy, N.C., July 21-23, 1926 with the consecrated pastor, Rev. Horton and his people having entertained us so cordially and elaborately, be it resolved, that a standing vote of thanks be extended them for their generous hospitality and that we express our further appreciation to the other churches of the city and adjacent communities. We pray the blessings of our great Father to ever abide with this pastor and people.

Respectfully submitted, Rev. N. L. Scarborough, Sisters Lula Goodby, Emma Stowe, L. L. Walker, Avatna Garnes, Optress Ezell, chairman.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES:

Committee on County Unions:

We, your Committee on County Union, submit the following:

Whereas, we find the monthly meetings of the County Union are an asset to this Convention, be it resolved that we urge the superintendents of all county Unions to hold regular monthly meetings in our Union churches.

Be it further resolved that we give our support both spiritually and financially.

Whereas, the Stokes County Union has applied for membership in this Convention with the fee of $1. Be it further resolved that we encourage the Unions throughout the bounds of the Convention to make yearly donations.

Respectfully submitted, Committee.

Committee on Missions:

We, your Committee on Missions beg to submit the following report: Realizing the great need of missionary work at home and on foreign fields, we recommend to the delegates and Sunday School workers of this Convention that on our return to our several churches and Sunday Schools, we put forth great effort and exert our influence for missions.

We further recommend that we conduct special rallies in our Sunday Schools for missions, and that a weekly collection be taken also for the work of missions at home and abroad.

Respectfully submitted, Committee.

Committee on Time and Place:

The Committee on Time and Place begs leave to submit the following report:

The Committee recommends that the forty-third annual session of this Convention be held with the New Bethel Baptist church, Winston-Salem, North Carolina, Wednesday before the fourth Sunday in June 1927.

Respectfully submitted, Committee.

Committee on Education:

We, your Committee on Education, after carefully considering this all-important subject, beg leave to submit the following report:

First: That we hardly endorse the comprehensive educational program that North Carolina is now promoting for the good of all the citizens of North Carolina.

Second: We wish to express our appreciation and pledge our cooperation to all of the institutions of the State as far as possible, that are helping to remove the handicap of illiteracy from our racial group.

Third: But since the educational and missionary convention of Western North Carolina has organized to unite the Baptist forces of Western North Carolina, the purpose of which is to erect an "A" grade secondary school, we recommend that this convention will cooperate to the fullest with the educational conventions of Western N. C. in the prosecution of this program.

Therefore we recommend that the special educational objects of this convention be Shaw University and an "A" grade secondary school of Western N. C.

Respectfully submitted, Committee.

My Dear Bro. Brown:

It will be impossible for me to appear on program at 11:45 tomorrow as I am engaged, but I will be there by 2 o'clock or rather for the afternoon and night sessions. Hold my topic until I get there.

Hoping that you all may have a fine session today, I am,
As ever yours,

Nannie G. Washington.

903 Lindsay St., Greensboro, N. C.
June 22, 1926.

Baptist S. S. Convention of Western N. C.,
In session at Dixonville Bapt. Church,
Salisbury, North Carolina.

Dear Brethren—Greetings:

Replying to your communication, regarding a rally in our Sunday School for the benefit of Shaw University, through the Baptist Board of Promotion, we wish to advise that, pursuant with our promise, togeher with that of our church, to the State Baptist Sunday School Convention, in session at Hamlet, N. C., last August, we had already sent to Shaw University, one hundred ($100.00) dollars.

May we say further, in this connection, that we have promised to make a like contribution to Shaw University for five years in order that the Baptist Board of Promotion may be able to keep, to the letter, its full program as outlined to secure adequate funds for the University.

Fraternally yours,

PROVIDENCE BAPTIST S. SCHOOL,
By W. N. Nelson, Supt.
Miss Ruth B. Artis, Sec.

B. Y. P. U.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON

2:00 Devotions—Mr. M. A. Horne, Miss Caroline Henderson. Song service under direction, R. D. Smith, open with music by choir and orchestra. "Where He may lead me I will go." Scripture Lesson and prayer—Miss Caroline Henderson. Ecclesiastes 3rd chapter. Prayer—Mr. M. A. Horne. Music by choir and orchestra. Song: "Is thy heart right with God?"

2:30, "Team Work in the B. Y. P. U" Miss Mabel Lewis, Mr. H. Parks and Miss Annie Tillman. Due to the absence of Miss Lewis, the topic was opened by Mr. Nelson. One of the main things he tried to instill into the minds of the B. Y. P. U. and its coworkers was the importance of working together in love, peace, harmony. The president could not do the work alone without the assistance of the other officers and workers. He also said he would admit there were pleasures of many kinds to keep our minds divided, but we should not let these things stop our service for God. The purpose of this organization in the church is to train the young people in religious work. The goal of this organization is to train the young peple in church work.

Miss Annie Tillman was the second speaker on ths topic. Her topic was unity. As has been often said "Together we stand, divided we fall." This was one of the main things she tried to impress upon the young people of her B. Y. P. U. Music—Choir, "I've Anchored in Jesus."

3:00 Our president made an excellent address. Among the many things he said, these are a few. "We can magnify the churches of Christ by the life we live as members. A church in any community is largely what its members think it to be and altogether what its members make it. Its character is in the character of its members; its doctrines in the teaching of its members; its efficiency in the efficiency of its members; its reputation in the reputation of its members. As they are, so is their church in the eyes of the community.

3:40, "How to Keep up the attendance in a B. Y. P. U." Mrs. Annie L. Smith, Miss Caroline Henderson. Among many of the good things Mrs. Smith said, was the B. Y. P. U. was a hotbed where the young people were transplanted into the work of the church. It was also a meeting where they were allowed to express themselves in their wakness in the service of the Lord.

4:10, "The B. Y. P. U. an asset to the church," Mr. S. L. Parham, Jr., Miss Annie Mason and Miss Doris Croom. Mr. Parham said, one of the greatest hindrances in the Baptist churches today is the lack of unity. How could we do anything unless we were united. Mr. aPrham also said the B. Y. P. U. is an asset to the church. It teaches the young people the principles of the Baptist church.

Solo, Little Miss ———. Music—Choir, "Lean on the Saviour's arms."

"Volunteer service, Rev. Penn and Mr. A. A. Mayfield.
